

Aaron Hughes, CISSP
President
Vidoc Razor, LLC

BIO:

Aaron is an active CISSP (Certified Information Systems Security Professional), a member of TALI (the Texas Association of Licensed Investigators) and a member and frequent speaker for ACFE (the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners), ISSA (Information Systems Security Association), ASIS (American Society for Industrial Security) and IAI (International Association for Identification). He and his team currently process and provide real or near real time analysis of over 1.4 billion regulatory compliance, intrusive and corporate misuse related events per month on behalf of their clients.

In addition, Mr. Hughes works as an expert witness on corporate and white collar crimes, theft of intellectual property, trademark infringement, and corporate misuse cases and has taught several CLE and TCLEOSE qualified programs for various legal associations and investigative agencies.