

Mini-Bio - Lois Gibson

Lois Gibson is recorded in the Guinness Book of Records as The World's Most Successful Forensic Artist. Her sketches have helped law enforcement bring in over 1,164 criminals. She is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor of Fine Arts With Honors and the FBI Academy Forensic Artist Course. She now teaches this profession at Northwestern University. She completed the textbook for her profession titled Forensic Art Essentials released by Elsevier Academic Press December 2007. Her recently published true-crime book Faces of Evil which profiles some of her most fascinating cases was co-authored with renowned writer Deanie Francis Mills. Both books are available in book stores and on line. Her recent sketch of an unidentified murdered baby girl called "Baby Grace" prompted Riley Ann Sawyers' grandmother to identify her for the Galveston authorities resulting in the apprehension of her murderers. ABC's 20/20 has begun filming this April 2008 for an upcoming profile on Lois and her work.
