

CDR Rob Smith is the Director of Prevention Operations for U.S. Coast Guard Sector Houston-Galveston in Galena Park, Texas. He is directly responsible for marine & facility inspection, marine investigation and waterway management for the Port of Houston and also serves as advisor to the Sector Commander for these same functions for the Ports of Freeport, Galveston, Texas City, Port Arthur, Beaumont, Orange, Cameron and Lake Charles.

His previous assignment was as the USCG's National Vessel Response Plan Program Manager within the Coast Guard's Office of Vessel Activities in Washington, D.C. CDR Smith has also served as Executive Officer, Maritime Safety and Security Team 91104 (Galveston, TX), CG Liaison to the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy as well as marine inspection, investigation and pollution response field assignments on the Houston Ship Channel and New York Harbor.

Rob started out his maritime career as a licensed Merchant Marine Officer and is a 1992 graduate of the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. He holds a B.S. in Maritime Transportation and is a 2005 graduate of the University of Houston-Clear Lake's School of Business with a M.S. in Environmental Management.

CDR Smith's military decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, four Coast Guard Commendation Medals, three Coast Guard Achievement Medals, the 911 Service Medal and several others.

A native of Boston, Massachusetts and Western Kansas, CDR Smith is married to the former Teri Villegas of Houston, Texas. They have three children, Kelly (21), Robby (12) and Valeria (10).