

Mr. Caldwell is currently a Director of Corporate Security for American International Group, Inc. and VP of AIG Intrepid Security, Inc. Mr. Caldwell was previously with the Gillette Company as the Manager of Security for their Mexico and Latin America divisions of Gillette, Braun, and Duracell Battery companies. Prior to entering the Corporate Security world, he was a special agent with the Diplomatic Security Service for 15 years. With DSS, Mr. Caldwell served on the protective details protecting three Secretary of State's, numerous Ambassadors and foreign ministers; he served as a criminal investigator in three field offices, and as Special Agent In Charge of the Houston Field Office. As a DSS agent, Mr. Caldwell served in the US Embassies of Honduras, Chad, both Congos, Greece, Pakistan, and Yeman and worked temporary assignments in over 40 countries. He served as the DS supervisor on site for the OK City bombing and the investigative team to Pakistan for the assassination of US Diplomats assigned to Karachi. Mr. Caldwell is married and has three children and four grandchildren.