

Bio:

Matt Silcox, CPP, CET is a security consultant with 25 years industry experience. He is the Technology Systems Department Manager at CHPA Consulting Engineers where he oversees a staff in the design and project management of access control, CCTV, intrusion detection, structured cabling and fiber optic systems. He is active in the local ASIS chapter and has served as chapter chairman and vice-chairman as well as many years on the education and Houses of Worship committees.