

December 14, 2005 ASIS International Houston Chapter Luncheon

Opening prayer and Pledge: Lewis Eakins CPP

Committee Activities

Treasurer: The report was discussed.

Newsletter: Newsletter contributions were sought, as the newsletter will go into production with anticipated print in early January. Within the luncheon, a $1,000 scholarship was awarded to North Harris Montgomery Community College Law Enforcement Academy.

Social Activity: No news at this time, but events are in planning for 2006.

Membership: Membership invoices were mailed so payments should begin coming to the PO Box.

Certifications: Geoff Mules is the new PSP Chairman and 2006 should allow for a few educational sessions.

TPSB: Kevin Galloway provided a sign in sheet for the reinstated CEU program for the licensed members. One credit can be earned for attending an eligible luncheon.

Scholarship: Randy Simpson advised all of the plans to devote time/energy towards the development of a Scholarship program for the coming years.

Chapter Elections: Swearing in of the following 2006 Officers occurred:

Chair	John Brady
Vice Chair	Posie Clinton
Treasurer	Bob Cascino, CPP
Secretary	Pam Duncan

Seminar: No update provided.

Golf Scholarship Tournament: Tournament planning is in motion for an event to be hosted in early May 2006.

Houses of Worship: No update provided.

Corporate Roundtable: Charles Hutchinson was not in attendance, as he traveled to Austin to attend the quarterly TPSB meeting.

Legislation: No update provided.

Public Safety Official Recognition: Assistant U.S. Attorney Shelley Hicks

Assistant U.S. Attorney Shelley Hicks was presented a plaque in appreciation for her service to the community.

Speaker: Marty Allday, Lobbyist

Topic: The Real Texas Legislative Process

Marty Allday describes himself as a shoe-leather lobbyist with a proven track record of successfully influencing governmental decisions. He spent 6-years in Washington, DC as a political appointee in the Reagan and Bush (#41) administrations. He later spent 10-years in a variety of positions with major employers focusing on state government and public relations management. In 2002, he jumped ship to start his own consulting business and he now advises a variety of clients--including the Security Managers Executive Forum—on how to most effectively represent your own interests before the Texas State Legislature and other governmental agencies. An engraved plaque was awarded to Marty Allday in appreciation of his presentation.

A special thank you and engraved plaque was extended to Mr. Tom Hamilton, CPP for his generous contribution of time and energy in regards to our Sentry Newsletter publication.

A special thank you and engraved “wooden sword” was extended to Mr. Darin Dillon, CPP for his role as Chapter Chair for this past year.

The next meeting date is “to be announced”